

Continuous coater

Type: VSX

Application

This continuous fat coater is extremely suitable for adding fat/oil and other liquids to animal/petfood pellets.

When installed immediately after an expander/press/extruder the coater can

Operation

The feeding of pellets to the mixer can be regulated by a weighing-conveyor. The liquids may be added simultaneously by means of a dosage pump with accessories. Variable-pitch paddles ensure

Construction

- Strong, non-stick stainless steel welded construction.
- Electrical tracing (heating).
- Insulation.
- Special designed mixer-shaft with ribbons and paddles.
- Liquid dosing nozzles.
- Cover easy-to-remove.

Benefits

- Continuous system.
- Capacity up to 25 tons/h pellets.
- Increase of pelleting capacity due to fat addition after pelleting, up to 50% for products with high fat content.
- Fat/oil addition up to 4% on cold pellets.
- Decrease of energy consumption on pelleting process.
- The mixing-shaft design ensures a high

Continuous fat coater

Type: VSX

